Church
The Lutheran of St. John's, Easton, grew out of the church at Morgan Hill, (at Cedarville, near South Easton), which was begun by John Casper Stoever in 1730 and grew into the largest Lutheran congregation at that time in America. But after St. James' Greenwich was founded in 1755, and about the same time a congregation in Easton, the church at Morgan Hill, or Forks, dwindled and was later abandoned.
In Easton a log schoolhouse was erected on North Third St. in 1755 and both Lutheran and Reformed services were held there. In 1763 the Lutherans bought a st one house on South Third St. from the Moravians and the organization of St. John's took place there, the Reformed remaining on North Third St.

EARLY GERMAN CONGREGATIONS.

NORTHAMPTON COUNTY.

This Lutheran building was a house of two stories, of which the lower formed the Church and the upper the parsonage. This lasted till 1776, when both congregations came together and built a large church on the site of the old schoolhouse on North Third St. This was then a Union church until 1832 when St. John's was built on the present site, while the First Reformed congregation enlarged the old church on North Third St.

This ends the Baptismal Record in Book I.
Communicant & Confirmation Lists,pp.64-105, are dated 1803-1836; except that on p.100, in 1798, which is signed by an unknown name, probably a temporary supply.

The dozen pages in back of book are concerned chiefly with accounts but there is one early Confirmation,signed by FRIEDRICH MILLER, V.D.M. Mar.30,1774.
